THE MICHIGAN SUPREME COURT

In Michigan, the People elect their Supreme Court justices.

To have your vote counted, you must individually cast your vote in the non-partisan section of your ballot. Straight ticket voting does not include the non-partisan section.

The Michigan Democratic Party nominated these two candidate this year:

Kimberly Ann Thomas

Thomas is a law professor at the University of Michigan Law School, where she teaches civil and criminal litigation and runs the Juvenile Justice Clinic.

Kyra Harris Bolden
Incumbent

<https://www.boldenforjustice.com/>

Gov. Whitmer was nominated to the court by Gov. Gretchen Whitmer in 2022 to replace former Justice McCormack. She is running for reelection to serve out the remainder of McCormack's term, ending Jan. 1, 2029.
